For Immediate Release:
January 25, 2026

City Departments to Operate on a Two-Hour Delay on Monday Due to Inclement Weather

[Columbus, Georgia] – Due to hazardous weather conditions, including possible icy roadways, the Columbus Consolidated Government departments will operate on a two-hour delay on Monday, January 26, 2026.

All city departments will open and resume normal operations at 10:00 a.m. This delayed opening is intended to improve road conditions and promote the safety of employees and the public.

Residents are encouraged to use caution when traveling and to monitor official City of Columbus communication channels for any additional updates related to weather conditions.

We will continue to monitor the winter weather forecast and reassess conditions, making appropriate changes to the work schedule as needed.
